General information

Find out on our website or on the following links for more information about:

- TICKET VALIDITY: If your fare doesn't allow changes or refunds, only the departure and arrival dates corresponding to the itinerary of your trip apply. If your fare allows changes and/or refunds, your ticket is valid for 12 months from the date of issue. However, once your trip has begun, your ticket will expire once the maximum stay has been exceeded or on the last travel date that your fare allows.
- CHECK-IN: Check in information here. For flights in your itinerary that are operated by another airline, please remember that you need to check in before your flight on that airline's website.
- SPECIAL NEEDS SERVICES: If you are traveling with a special need or medical condition, please call our Contact Center at your earliest convenience so that we may accommodate you. For questions and more information please go to the Special Needs section on our website.
- CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF TWO WITHOUT A SEAT: You are only permitted to bring one of the following items on board the aircraft free of charge: a collapsible pram, a portable cot, or a car seat that has been certified for safe transportation within the cargo area of the aircraft. The car seat may be carried on-board, however this is subject to space availability. This policy applies only to LATAM Airlines Group; if you are flying with a different airline please check with the operator of your flight regarding their regulations when flying with children under the age of two without a seat.
- TICKET USE: The flights or legs which make up the itinerary must be flown in the indicated given order. The carrier, subject to the conditions described in the applicable legislation, may refuse to board a passenger who hasn't complied with the previously mentioned itinerary order or if a passenger hasn't flown one of the legs indicated in their ticket. If one of these segments is not flown, the itinerary will be completely canceled without prior warning and no refund given unless the fare's conditions allow it. For example, but not exclusively, if the passenger does not fly the itinerary's first (outbound) leg, they won't be able to fly any following (stopover or return) leg. The ticket you've purchased is non-transferable.
- UPGRADE REQUEST: In order to request a Cabin Upgrade with segments, remember that you have to have purchased your ticket with a Light, Plus, Delta Comfort, Standard, Classic or Full fare. Keep in mind that if your fare is Light, you can only request a cabin upgrade with segments for domestic flights, within South America and the Caribbean, except for regional flights from Brazil. Children or infants traveling with discounted fares will not be eligible for the LATAM Pass Upgrade benefit. To read about the conditions of your ticket, review the details of the fare you purchased.
- SEATS: You may purchase a LATAM+ or a standard seat with a Basic or Light fare. If you purchased a Delta Comfort fare, subject to availability, you may select a LATAM+ seat at no additional cost to you; if no availability, you may select a standard seat at no additional cost to you. If you are a Gold, Gold Plus, Platinum, Black or Black Signature member, you may select a standard seat at no additional cost to you when purchasing a Light, Plus or Delta Comfort fare. Subject to availability, if you are a Platinum, Black or Black Signature member, you may select a LATAM+ seat at no additional cost to you. You may go to "My Trips" to select or purchase your seat. No additional cost seats available only on flights operated by LATAM Airlines Colombia, LATAM Airlines Argentina, LATAM Airlines Brasil, LATAM Airlines Group, LATAM Airlines Peru, LATAM Airlines Ecuador.
- TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: The passenger is responsible for presenting and complying with all required travel documents to enter or leave a country. We recommend that you contact the Consulate of the applicable country/ies in your itinerary. If the itinerary includes stops in countries different from your final destination country, you are responsible to learn whether you need to go through customs and immigration in the countries of those stop(s) and obtain the required and corresponding travel documents.
- BOARDING FEES AND CHARGES: Please learn about the boarding, taxes, and other fees and charges that you must pay at the airport to the applicable authorities. If you did not carry out your trip, you may request a refund from the Carrier of any airport taxes that are reimbursable based on the rules and regulations of the corresponding country, even if the fare paid does not allow for a refund of the Ticket. Please call our Contact Center or go to latam.com>Check In and Services> Ticket Refunds. In the event that the refundable fees and charges were not included in the amount paid for the fare (i.e. if they were collected directly by the airport), you must request this refund directly from the corresponding airport authority, subject to their limitations and rules.
- CANCELLATION DUE TO LACK OF PAYMENT: Airline may deny transportation in any of the itinerary flights if the purchased fare has not been paid in full or if the fare was unlawfully acquired.
- AIR TRANSPORT AGREEMENT CONDITIONS: Learn about the terms and conditions as well as the applicable regulation for your trip in our Air Transport Agreement Conditions available at the link.

- Child ticket discounts are applied to the full fare amount. Fuel and Taxes are charged separately.
- LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY: Passengers embarking upon a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that the provisions of an international treaty (the Warsaw Convention, the 1999 Montreal Convention, or other treaty), as well as a carrier's own contract of carriage or tariff provisions, may be applicable to their entire journey, including any portion entirely within the countries of departure and destination. The applicable treaty governs and may limit the liability of carriers to passengers for death or personal injury, destruction or loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage. Additional protection can usually be obtained by purchasing insurance from a private company or the airline. Such insurance is not affected by any limitation of the carrier's liability under an international treaty. For further information please consult your airline or insurance company representative.(*)
- AIR PASSENGER PROTECTION REGULATIONS: For Canada, If you are denied boarding, your flight is cancelled or delayed for at least two hours, or your baggage is lost or damaged, you may be entitled to certain standards of treatment and compensation under the Air Passenger Protection Regulations. For more information about your passenger rights please contact your air carrier or visit the Canadian Transportation Agency's website. Please see LATAM Airlines Air Transport Agreement/Conditions of Carriage for Canada (i.e. Tariff) here.
- Redemption with LATAM Pass Miles: you can purchase part or all of your ticket using your LATAM Pass Miles; please note that in these cases, the ticket will not earn new LATAM Pass Miles.
